A personal message from: CLARK'S TAE KWON DO

Our Martial Arts family:

Recently our school was closed due to heavy smoke damage caused by a fire set by a couple of kids who had nothing better to do in the early morning. We were forced to move into the basement of a local church to continue our training. We had only lost one day of training.

While attending Mr. Dupuis' Maine Martial Arts challenge this past weekend, I was once again reminded of the special relationships and friendships we have been blessed with over the years.

Our misfortune was heard and a donation was collected to assist our school in replacing the items that were damaged.

We teach our students the importance of integrity and honor and helping your fellow man, and then we travel to a tournament and they see these qualities first hand.

I cannot express my appreciation more to all those that showed these qualities by their donation at the Maine Martial Arts Challenge. I tell my students about the Martial Arts family I have made over the years and what better way for you to show them than through your generous donation to our school.

I wish to thank you all personally; and on behalf of my students, thank you for showing them what we as martial artists are all about.

*Sincerely,
Mike Clark & students

The Maine Nationals "2000"

(Formerly the Paul Bunyan Nationals)

By: R. J. Bishop

Brewer, ME

This year's MAINE NATIONALS "2000" (formerly the Paul Bunyan Nationals) was held at the Brewer High School Gymnasium on February 29, 2000. Despite blizzard conditions, the event drew over 280 competitors and over 300 spectators from all over New England and Canada. SBUMNIM MIKE CLARK, the promoter, is in his 18th year of promoting quality tournaments. SABUMNIM CLARK is a well-liked and respected martial artist and promoter; therefore, it comes to no surprise that his tournaments are so well supported.

SABUMNIM CLARK started the event by welcoming all the competitors and spectators and honored all the Black Belts in attendance. Miss Veronica Henninger of Connally's Jiu-Jitsu & Karate sang both the Canadian and the U.S. National Anthems beautifully.

The Weapons divisions went first and they featured many exceptional competitors, especially in the youth divisions. Several of the weapon divisions featured a large group of young competitors. Kata followed, and I truly enjoy watching the Sport Karate stars of the future compete. I still get a kick (no pun intended) out of watching the very young novice competitors giving it their all.

The Kumite divisions were very competitive, particularly the Black Belt divisions. Seasoned veterans like ALLAN VIERNES, KATE ARCHAMBAULT and JEFF WEAGLEY showed the young competitors their expertise.

This tournament featured many Grand Championships including UNDER BLACK BELT DIVISIONS. They had Grands for Novice, Intermediates, Advanced, Youth, and Adults. Not many promoters are willing to go the extra expense to have these kind of Grand Championships.

MAINE NATIONALS "2000" was given an "A" rating by the new S.M.A.R.T. ratings service. The "A" is S.M.A.R.T.'s highest tournament rating. IPPONE gave the MAINE NATIONALS "2000" a four-star rating.

Overall, the MAINE NATIONALS "2000" is still, for my money, one of the fairest, well-run tournaments anywhere, deserving a rating of TWO THUMBS UP from this reporter.

Coming up in August will be the 5th Annual St. Jude Benefit Tournament, also at the Brewer High School in Brewer, Maine. The date will be announced in the near future. ALL of the proceeds of this tournament will go to the St. Jude Children's hospital, so please support it. This will also be a S.M.A.R.T. rated "A" Tournament.

Mr. Clark will be holding a Karate Camp in Bangor, Maine from June 11 - 17, 2000. Many fine instructors will be on hand to work with the campers and a lot of fun events are in store for them. For those interested in the St. Jude Benefit Tournament or the Karate Camp, call Mr. Clark at 207-989-6659.

Grand Champion winners for the 18th Maine Nationals were:

Huard's "Battle of Maine"

By: R.J. Bishop

Winslow, Maine

March 25, 2000

Remember your excitement years ago as a child when your parents handed you your weekly allowance and you just couldn't wait to go to the corner store and blow it on penny candy? Well, I feel the same excitement every March when the Huard's "Battle of Maine" comes around. This is one of the largest and most exciting Martial Arts events in New England. Some of New England's finest competitors can be seen here. Shihan Randy Huard, along with his wife Connie and son's Sensei's Mark and Mike, always run a top-notch, family oriented tournament.

This year's "Battle of Maine" featured over 130 divisions, 8 places for all Forms competitors, and numerous Grand Champions were crowned. Huard's "Battle of Maine" was given a 5-Star rating by IPPONE and S.M.A.R.T. gave it an "A", their highest tournament rating. Over 500 competitors competed at this year's "Battle of Maine".

Opening ceremonies began at 10:00 a.m. with the singing of the national anthem, which was beautifully done by the talented Veronica Henninger.

The youth and adult Musical Kata divisions (my personal favorite) started the show off. PROMOTERS TAKE NOTE: Nothing gets an audience fired up for a tournament more than an exciting Musical Kata/Weapons division. (I wish more tournaments would have them.) This was the first year that the Intermediate division was allowed to compete in the musical divisions at the "Battle of Maine" and they did a great job.

In the Under BB Musical division, Meagan Forsythe performed a cute "Xena" The Warrior Princess routine. This young lady is a future superstar. Luke Boucher was the winner of the Youth under BB Musical Kata division performing an exciting Kama form. The Jr. Black Belt Musical division was very good with Shane Gallagher winning that division. The Adult Black Belt Musical winner was Chad Joseph.

The Youth Form division followed the Musical division. And, did you notice all black GI's in the Sukee Arena? I'll bet half of the youth competitors at the "Battle of Maine" were students of all the highly successful Huard's schools throughout Maine.

The Fighting divisions were very competitive and exciting to watch. I managed to watch several evenly matched spirited fights that seemed to go on for several minutes. Speaking of fighting, KRANE RATINGS INTERNATIONAL'S 18 - 29 year-old World Heavyweight Fighting Champion "Christopher Rodrigues" from the World Champion "TEAM PAUL MITCHELL" was in attendance judging and lending support to the Huard's family.

Weapons and Self Defense followed the fighting, and I was particularly impressed with several of the Self Defense routings. Shane Gallagher and Stephen Krause had a very realistic looking routine that would have impressed many movie producers.

Once again, the "Battle of Maine" lived up to expectations. I personally had a good time, and I am sure the majority of the competitors and spectators did as well. I rate this tournament TWO THUMBS UP and look forward to next year's "Battle of Maine" scheduled for March 24, 2001, at the Sukee Arena & Events Center in Winslow, Maine.

The "2000" Huard's "Battle of Maine" Grand Champions were:

OVERALL Jr. Under BB Grand Champion:	Luke Boucher
OVERALL Jr. Black Belt Grand Champion:	Shane Gallagher
Jr. Self Defense Grand Champions:	Shane Gallagher & Stephen Krause

The 23rd Maine Martial Arts Challenge

"The year of the Dragon"

(formerly the Tao Open)

By: R. J. Bishop

Hallowell, Maine

April 8 & 9, 2000

The 23rd "Maine Martial Arts Challenge" (formerly the Tao Open) held at the Hall-Dale High School in Hallowell, Maine was once again a truly exceptional family oriented tournament. Almost four hundred martial artists from all over New England showcased their talents at this two-day, 110-division event; and over seven hundred spectators attended.

23rd "Maine Martial Arts Challenge" was "A" rated by the new S.M.A.R.T. rating system and 5 stars by IPPONE.

Promoter Robert Dupuis and his wife Kathy have come a long way since inheriting this tournament from their mentor Sabumnim Jeff Wood. This tournament was very well organized, fair, and a lot of fun to attend.

Saturday was the Black Belt day with about sixty talented Black Belts ready to do battle. The competition started at 3:00 p.m. and ended about 8:00 p.m. The colored belt competition on Sunday started about 10:30 a.m. and ended about 4:30 p.m. Both days ran smoothly and without controversy.

On Saturday, the Junior Black Belt Musical division started off the tournament with "Team Tao's" Reggie Levesque of Augusta, Maine, winning the 17 & under competition with his high-energy and entertaining in open-hand Kata. The exciting, high-flying T.J. Mitchell won the adult Black Belt Musical division.

The Sunday tournament began with the All Ages Under Black Belt Musical division with Joshua Desorda of Stowe, Vermont, winning that division with a superb musical Bo form.

Like Saturday, the Weapons division followed the Musical. There were many gifted Junior Weapons competitors in attendance, so many that they decided to split the division to give more kids a chance to place.

Kata followed immediately by fighting, came next. Good sportsmanship was displayed throughout the day, and that's what it is all about. Many new friendships were made these two days.

The local D.A.R.E. program set up a kicking contest in one of the rings to raise money for their worthy cause. Also, a raffle was set up to raise money for the "Maine Special Olympics".

During the tournament, Sensei's Dupuis & Wood stopped the action to recognize Sabumnim Mike Clark Bangor, Maine. Earlier in the week, Sabumnim Clark's building sustained damage due to a fire and the Black Belts organized a collection to help him purchase new equipment to replace the smoke damaged equipment. Martial artists are a close-knit group almost like a family, always ready to help when needed.

Kudos to the "Team Tao" families and friends running the concession stand. Probably the best tournament cuisine on the Maine circuit. They had a large menu to choose from and at very reasonable prices.

Next year's "Maine Martial Arts Challenge" may move to a new larger facility due to the growth of the tournament. Date and location will be announced in the near future.

If you are looking to attend a fair, fun, top-quality tournament, then keep in mind the "Maine Martial Arts Challenge". I give it a Two Thumbs Up

TERRELL KOCZYNSKI Central Maine's "Youth of the Year" Representing the Waterville Area Boys & Girls Club

Congratulations to Terrell Koczynski. Terrell is a 3rd Degree Brown Belt in Hen San Ryu. He studies the martial arts with Club Naha, which is housed in the Alford Youth Recreation Center in Waterville.

Terrell was named Central Maine's "Youth of the Year" representing the Waterville Area Boys & Girls Club. He participated in the Tri - State competition in Portland where contestants from Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont competed for Regional "Youth of the Year". Terrell did a fantastic job. He made everyone laugh with his extraordinary sense of humor. Although he did not take 1st place in the Regional competition, he did a magnificent job representing Central Maine and was invited back to compete again next year. Again, congratulations on a job well done. We're all proud of you.

From your family & friends at Club Naha
and The Waterville Area Boys & Girls Club and YMCA.
