BRENT J. CRISCI'S KICKSUSA NATIONAL
2002 KARATE/KUNG FU CHAMPIONSHIPS

Gardiner, Maine

Submitted by: Steve Black

(The opinions here are not those of the SMART Officials. They are the opinion of the writer.)

Scenic Gardiner, Maine, was recently host to the 9th Annual KICKSUSA NATIONAL 2002 KARATE/KUNG FU CHAMPIONSHIPS under the direction of noted promoter MASTER BRENT J. CRISCI. The event hosted eight rings with over 100 divisions offered, which saw almost 300 competitors vie for the over 500 trophies and awards available this year, as well as, the seven Grand Championships for which Shihan Crisci presented special Samurai Sword Sets. The event was rated and sanctioned by S.M.A.R.T. (State Martial Arts Ratings & Totals), IPPONE (Independent Practitioners & Promoters of New England), the U.S.B.B.S. (The United States Black Belt Society), and M.A.C.S. (The Martial Arts Collective Society). The 1,000 + spectators in attendance were treated to some of the best fighting, forms, and weapons competition the northeast has to offer. Noted national competition teams in the house were the WARRIORS from Brattleboro, Vermont; TEAM JUKADO from Westbrook; TEAM KICKSUSA from the capitol of Augusta, Maine; TEAM XEON from Waterbury, Connecticut; to name but a few.

The tournament was opened with a special dedication by Master Crisci to his longtime friend and well-known Kenpo stylist and coach, STEVE GELIN. Sensei Gelin, who was known across the northeast for his admirable work with special needs adults, passed away unexpectedly in the fall and the martial arts community has felt his loss dearly. All in attendance took a moment to remember this notable and honorable individual, who taught all he knew, the meaning of patience and good humor.

The first Grand Championship sword set went to the BEST SUPPORTING SCHOOL: TEAM JUKADO, under the direction of Grandmaster Allan Viernes of Westbrook, Maine. The remaining six Grand Championship award sword sets were presented as follows: JUNIOR UNDER BLACK BELT KATA: ANDREW LONELY of Rouleau Holley's Tae Kwon Do, Brattleboro, Vermont; ADULT UNDER BLACK BELT KATA: DALLAS SMEDBERG of Brent J. Crisci's United Martial Arts Academies, Augusta, Maine; JUNIOR BLACK BELT KATA: COLE CASTOR, of Budd's Tae Kwon Do, Keene, New Hampshire; ADULT BLACKBELT KATA: ALLAN VIERNES of Team Jukado, Westbrook, Maine; WOMEN'S BLACKBELT FIGHTING: ALLISON DRAPER of Budd's Tae Kwon Do, Keene, New Hampshire; and MEN'S BLACKBELT FIGHTING: MARCELINO AMARO of Strictly All Contact, Quincy, Massachusetts.

The entire day's event went without an injury or arbitration do to the preparation, organization, and the high quality of the volunteer staff as well as the black belt judges. Promoter Brent J. Crisci thanked all for their help and promised to continue to strive for a tournament which provided a fun, fair, and safe day for all in attendance. The tournament also served as a qualifier for the WORLD CUP 2003 to be held in MONTEGO BAY, JAMAICA. Interested parties can call (207) 621-0770 for further details. For details on next year's KICKSUSA NATIONALS or other events being promoted by Brent J. Crisci, check out UnitedKosho.com or eKarate.net.

Friendship Tournament

Westbrook, Maine

Written By: Laura Violette

(The opinions here are not those of the SMART Officials. They are the opinion of the writer.)

Saturday, June 8th, turned out to be a beautiful, sunny day for the 6th ANNUAL FRIENDSHIP TOURNAMENT. The Westbrook High School Gymnasium was packed with 925 people, including 389 competitors! This has prompted GRANDMASTER ALLAN and SHIHAN JENNIFER VIERNES to locate a larger facility and they have promised to keep everyone updated about any changes.

There were many people, situations, and events that made the day a success. As usual, the specialty events were a crowd favorite with Flag Sparring stealing the show. The National Anthem was sung beautifully by LISA MELLO of Wayne Mello's Shotokan karate and George Turini gave a flawless performance of his infamous Bo Kata.

Grandmaster Terry was, once again, at the center of the Jukado Café with her Teriyaki and Fried Rice. Few can resist it as was evident by the long lines. A new, larger gas grill should shorten the cooking times, which will make EVERYONE happy!

The Huard's organization (Dad – Randy, Sons – Mark & Mike and a plethora of students) walked away with the "BEST SUPPORTING SCHOOL AWARD". Congratulations to all!

Denise Rouleau & Deborah Holley of Rouleau-Holley's Tae Kwon Do were the coordinators of this year's event. "They were professional and organized," said Grandmaster Allan. "We will definitely have them back next year." At the end of the day, everyone was invited to the tournament party. This celebration was not only a fun way to say thank you to all of those who attended the tournament, it was also to mark the 30th Anniversary of the style of Jukado.

Six years ago, GRANDMASTER ALLAN and SHIHAN JENNIFER had a goal—to have a tournament where all styles of martial arts could compete in a fair, professional and friendly environment. Their hard work and dedication toward this goal is evident. So, what is their new goal? "To maintain our strengths and improve our weaknesses. That's the way of a martial artist."

MAINE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL KARATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Sanford, Maine

By: RJ Bishop

(The opinions here are not those of the SMART Officials. They are the opinion of the writer.)

When it comes to putting on an outstanding tournament, KRI President, Tony Cogliandro, rates right up there as one of the best qualified and experienced promoters, Mr. Cogliandro, the former promoter of the BOSTON INTERNATIONAL KARATE CHAMPIONSHIPS is one of the finest promoters and coordinators in the world of martial arts. Mr. Cogliandro is an 8th Degree Black Belt and trained under Grand Master Ed Parker and his AMERICAN KENPO System. Mr. Cogliandro is also the president of AMERICAN KENPO INTERNATIONAL organization.

The 1st Annual MAINE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL KARATE CHAMPIONSHIPS were held at the Memorial Gym in Sanford, Maine. Slightly over 200 competitors and several hundred spectators were in attendance that day. It was rated by KRANE with a AAAAA+, KRANE World Rate, S.M.A.R.T. "A" rated, and it was also rated by WAKO.

The tournament coordinators for the day were TEAM PAUL MITCHELL Coach Don Rodrigues, TEAM PAUL MITCHELL member Christopher Rodrigues and NEW ENGLAND OPEN promoter Richard Baptista. The tournament started at 9:30 a.m. and ended at 12:15 p.m. Yes, that is correct, it only took two hours and 45 minutes to complete this tournament... ABSOLUTELY INCREDIBLE!

Many top New England competition teams were in attendance, teams such as TEAM DS, TEAM PITBULLS, TEAM CERIO and TEAM HSK. The Maine SMART competitors and spectators were really in awe of all the top talent at this tournament. Many of K.R.I.'s Junior World Champions were in attendance and performed exceptionally well.

Congratulations to S.M.A.R.T. competitor Meagan Forsythe for her 1st place KATA finish. Meagan, a brown belt with TEAM HSK has been on a roll recently and credits Anthony Atkins for the improvement in her Kata.

Overall, this was an outstanding tournament, without a doubt the best SMART tournament I have ever attended. It was also one of the best K.R.I. events I have ever gone to. Hopefully, K.R.I. and S.M.A.R.T. will continue to work together in the future. It would be beneficial to both organizations if that were to happen. This first year tournament will be a hard one to top. Congratulations to Tony and Brenda Cogliandro for promoting such a fine event. I give the MAINE YOUTH INTERNATIONAL KARATE CHAMPIONSHIPS my Two Big Thumbs Up rating.
